VOLUME I. NUMBER 1. } TULLIDGE'S QUARTERLY. { SALT LAKE CITY, OCTOBER, 1880.

BRIGHAM YOUNG, THE FOUNDER OF UTAH. 1
With Steel Plate Engraving.

FIRST INDEPENDENCE DAY IN UTAH. (POETRY.) BY ELIZA R. SNOW. . 6

THE JOURNEY OF THE PIONEERS. 7

THE GODBEITE MOVEMENT. 14
Sociological view of the early days of Utah.—Character of the Godbeites.—Visit of Godbe and Harrison to New York: they return with a mission.—Godbeite philosophy of Brigham Young and his mission as a "Man of Destiny."—Opening of the action.—Our Workman's Wages.—Steadying the Ark.—The True Development of the Territory.—Summoned before the "School."—We are Nothing if not Spiritual.—Harrison and Godbe before the School.—Grand Trial before the High Council.—Protests and Appeals. The Godbeites proclaim that Mormon Utah does not fear civilization.—Colfax and the Government brought into the action.—Godbe's mission to Washington to plead for the Mormon people: his interviews with Grant and Cullom.—Petition against the Cullom Bill.—Saved from a Collision with the United States.

WILLIAM S. GODBE. (BIOGRAPHY.) 64
With Steel Plate Engraving.

GODBE ON POLYGAMY. 66
Basis of belief in Polygamy.—Polygamy not prohibited in the New Testament.—Other arguments sustaining Polygamy.—Mormon belief in the Revelation.—Polygamic Marriage in theory virtuous.—The practice of Plural Marriage.—Polygamy declining.—Legislation on the subject.—Comparative virtue of the Mormon people.—The Vital Question.—Family Relations.—A case in illustration.—Rights of the parties.—Women should be educated for self-support.—Equal Rights for all.—Another case supposed.—Changes that are inevitable.—Be Firm in the Right.

WILLIAM H. SHEARMAN. (BIOGRAPHY.) 74

ELI B. KELSEY. (BIOGRAPHY.) 79

HENRY W LAWRENCE. (BIOGRAPHY.) 81
With Steel Plate Engraving.

E. L. T. HARRISON. (BIOGRAPHY.) 82
With Steel Plate Engraving.

TRIUMPH OF REFORM. 85

AN ATTEMPT AT THE LAWS OF PLANETARY ROTATION. BY PROF. THOMAS JOB, SALT LAKE CITY. 86

TOMMY RAEBURN, THE AYRSHIRE HERMIT. (A TRUE STORY.) BY JOHN LYON. 90
The quarrel between Tommy Raeburn and Farmer Thornton.—Tommy's solemn oath that he would "never shave his beard, cut his hair, change his clothing, nor till his land until the ground was lawfully restored to him again." The Transformation.—The wild hairy hermit of Ayrshire.—Visitors from all parts of the world to see the Hermit.—Tommy goes to London to see the Queen. The Ayrshire Hermit in the presence of her Majesty.—Tommy returns to Ayrshire.—The great lawsuit reopened.—Judgment again given against Tommy. Despair and death of the Ayrshire Hermit.

THE LATTER-DAY KINGDOM. (A POEM.) BY CHARLES W. PENROSE. . . 95

JOSEPH THE PROPHET. 96
With Steel Plate Engraving.
Fifty years ago.—The boy's first vision.—Second vision.—The Angel Moroni and the plates.—Elijah and his mission.—The Angel Fathers and their earthly children.—Parley P. Pratt's description of the Prophet.—In a dungeon and in chains; Joseph's terrible rebuke to the guards: "Silence! ye fiends of the infernal pit!"—Character points and personal majesty.—"I am the Buckler of Jehovah!"—One greater than Napoleon.—The last Parting between Joseph and his Apostles.—The Martyrdom.

UTAH AND FEMALE SUFFRAGE. 111

ELIZA R. SNOW, (BIOGRAPHY.) 116
With Steel Plate Engraving.

ALFRED AND THE SAXON CIVILIZATION. 117
The World's History Illustrated in its Great Characters.—The great Saxon lawgiver.—England founded as a Constitutional Kingdom.—Parallel between Alfred and Washington: the two Fathers of their countries.—The story of Alfred's life.—Specimens of Saxon literature.—Poetry of Alfred the Great.

THE QUESTION OF THE HOUR, OR RADICAL, OR CONSERVATIVE MEASURES FOR UTAH. BY E. L. T. HARRISON. 129

EDITOR'S DEPARTMENT. 141
Salutatory.—Utah's Natal Day.—Utah's Biographical Encyclopædia.—Our Pioneer Book Store.—Our Record on the Pacific.—Review of Books.—Our Home Poets.—"The Wife to her Husband; by Emeline B. Wells.—"There is no such thing as Death;" by H. W. Naisbett.—The Grand Jubilee Poem; by O. F. Whitney.

HADASSAH, THE JEWESS. (An Historical Story of the return of the Jews to Europe after their expulsion from Spain.) BY EDWARD W. TULLIDGE. . 145

POETRY. BY HANNAH T. KING. 176

VOLUME I. NUMBER 1. } TULLIDGE'S QUARTERLY. { SALT LAKE CITY, OCTOBER, 1880.

BRIGHAM YOUNG, THE FOUNDER OF UTAH. 1
With Steel Plate Engraving.

FIRST INDEPENDENCE DAY IN UTAH. (POETRY.) BY ELIZA R. SNOW. . 6

THE JOURNEY OF THE PIONEERS. 7

THE GODBEITE MOVEMENT. 14
Sociological view of the early days of Utah.—Character of the Godbeites.—Visit of Godbe and Harrison to New York: they return with a mission.—Godbeite philosophy of Brigham Young and his mission as a "Man of Destiny."—Opening of the action.—Our Workman's Wages.—Steadying the Ark.—The True Development of the Territory.—Summoned before the "School."—We are Nothing if not Spiritual.—Harrison and Godbe before the School.—Grand Trial before the High Council.—Protests and Appeals. The Godbeites proclaim that Mormon Utah does not fear civilization.—Colfax and the Government brought into the action.—Godbe's mission to Washington to plead for the Mormon people: his interviews with Grant and Cullom.—Petition against the Cullom Bill.—Saved from a Collision with the United States.

WILLIAM S. GODBE. (BIOGRAPHY.) 64
With Steel Plate Engraving.

GODBE ON POLYGAMY. 66
Basis of belief in Polygamy.—Polygamy not prohibited in the New Testament.—Other arguments sustaining Polygamy.—Mormon belief in the Revelation.—Polygamic Marriage in theory virtuous.—The practice of Plural Marriage.—Polygamy declining.—Legislation on the subject.—Comparative virtue of the Mormon people.—The Vital Question.—Family Relations.—A case in illustration.—Rights of the parties.—Women should be educated for self-support.—Equal Rights for all.—Another case supposed.—Changes that are inevitable.—Be Firm in the Right.

WILLIAM H. SHEARMAN. (BIOGRAPHY.) 74

ELI B. KELSEY. (BIOGRAPHY.) 79

HENRY W LAWRENCE. (BIOGRAPHY.) 81
With Steel Plate Engraving.

E. L. T. HARRISON. (BIOGRAPHY.) 82
With Steel Plate Engraving.

TRIUMPH OF REFORM. 85

AN ATTEMPT AT THE LAWS OF PLANETARY ROTATION. BY PROF. THOMAS JOB, SALT LAKE CITY. 86

TOMMY RAEBURN, THE AYRSHIRE HERMIT. (A TRUE STORY.) BY JOHN LYON. 90
The quarrel between Tommy Raeburn and Farmer Thornton.—Tommy's solemn oath that he would "never shave his beard, cut his hair, change his clothing, nor till his land until the ground was lawfully restored to him again." The Transformation.—The wild hairy hermit of Ayrshire.—Visitors from all parts of the world to see the Hermit.—Tommy goes to London to see the Queen. The Ayrshire Hermit in the presence of her Majesty.—Tommy returns to Ayrshire.—The great lawsuit reopened.—Judgment again given against Tommy. Despair and death of the Ayrshire Hermit.

THE LATTER-DAY KINGDOM. (A POEM.) BY CHARLES W. PENROSE. . . 95

JOSEPH THE PROPHET. 96
With Steel Plate Engraving.
Fifty years ago.—The boy's first vision.—Second vision.—The Angel Moroni and the plates.—Elijah and his mission.—The Angel Fathers and their earthly children.—Parley P. Pratt's description of the Prophet.—In a dungeon and in chains; Joseph's terrible rebuke to the guards: "Silence! ye fiends of the infernal pit!"—Character points and personal majesty.—"I am the Buckler of Jehovah!"—One greater than Napoleon.—The last Parting between Joseph and his Apostles.—The Martyrdom.

UTAH AND FEMALE SUFFRAGE. 111

ELIZA R. SNOW, (BIOGRAPHY.) 116
With Steel Plate Engraving.

ALFRED AND THE SAXON CIVILIZATION. 117
The World's History Illustrated in its Great Characters.—The great Saxon lawgiver.—England founded as a Constitutional Kingdom.—Parallel between Alfred and Washington: the two Fathers of their countries.—The story of Alfred's life.—Specimens of Saxon literature.—Poetry of Alfred the Great.

THE QUESTION OF THE HOUR, OR RADICAL, OR CONSERVATIVE MEASURES FOR UTAH. BY E. L. T. HARRISON. 129

EDITOR'S DEPARTMENT. 141
Salutatory.—Utah's Natal Day.—Utah's Biographical Encyclopædia.—Our Pioneer Book Store.—Our Record on the Pacific.—Review of Books.—Our Home Poets.—"The Wife to her Husband; by Emeline B. Wells.—"There is no such thing as Death;" by H. W. Naisbett.—The Grand Jubilee Poem; by O. F. Whitney.

HADASSAH, THE JEWESS. (An Historical Story of the return of the Jews to Europe after their expulsion from Spain.) BY EDWARD W. TULLIDGE. . 145

POETRY. BY HANNAH T. KING. 176